PEGASUS BIKE TOURS

November 2021 Volume 6, Issue 11

2022 Pegasus Tours Domestic Tour Registration Quite Successful

We had a successful initial domestic tour registration period. Three of the five tours are full (or nearly so) with only one tour really languishing and that is the Omak Tour in its usual May slot. With only 12 folks registered it is questionable as to whether we can run it as it is priced out for at least 25 attendees. The Willamette Valley Tour will run but still has quite a few openings. As always, you can check the Tour Status here! Please note: it never hurts to put yourself on the Wait List for a full tour. Our experience is that with a little patience many folks get themselves on their selected tour down the road. Just go to the registration page and fill out the registration form and pay the initial deposit. You will get all of that back if we are unable to get you on that tour in a timely manner. Don't miss out on what may well be Pegasus's last year for domestic tours.

2023 International Tours

Though we are likely not to run any domestic tours in 2023, we do have two wonderful international tours that got carried over from 2022 due to Covid. We will host our first tour ever in Portugal! Although not all of the details have been worked out yet, Francien, our European guide has put together an astonishing tour in the best cycling region Portugal has to offer. Check it out here.

In addition, for those who have never done a Bike and Barge Tour in Holland, you don't want to miss out on this great opportunity. As you will see, we are really covering the very best Holland has to offer in this 10 day tour. We believe you will get a premium experience as Ralph grew up in Amsterdam and speaks the language. Check out all the details here.
