PEGASUS BIKE TOURS

December 2020 Volume 5, Issue 12

Light at the End of the Tunnel

We put off sending out the final issue of the 2020 Bike Flyer hoping to get more clarity as to what we might expect for 2021. We do think that perhaps things are looking up in terms of having a reliable vaccine in 2021. What is still uncertain is how fast we can expect to get that vaccine disseminated. We expect that it will be in time for our two International Tours and the Oregon Coast Tour next September but are doubtful as to whether we can run our three spring tours in Eastern Washington and Northern California. It seems like there are still a lot of obstacles we will have to negotiate for that to happen.

So we will continue hold off on registration for the time being to minimize the cost of PayPal fees and refunds. We hope that if you are thinking about joining us for any of the 2021 tours, you will save the dates so that if and when we do open registration we can have a quick turn-around. We are really excited about offering these beautiful tours. We know you will enjoy them.
